Electronic filing for Form N-11 is now available!

Form N-11 filers have the option of filing their 2000 individual income tax return electronically, either through an approved tax professional or using approved tax preparation software through a personal computer, if they are filing their federal individual income tax return electronically. For more information on the electronic filing of Form N-11, and for updates on other e-file opportunities, visit the Department's website at www.state.hi.us/tax

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

We realize that the tax laws change from year to year and are complex. To make tax filing easier for you, Hawaii has adopted many of the federal income tax provisions.

We appreciate the effort you made last year in filing an accurate tax return. This resulted in the faster processing of your returns and a prompt refund. We congratulate you.

We suggest the following to assist you in filing your return and receiving an early refund:

- Please check your mathematical calculations before sending in your return. Mistakes may bring requests for clarification and may slow up refunds.
- Mail your return as soon as possible to avoid those delays that are inevitable due to the volume of business at the end of the State income tax season on April 20th.
- Use the preprinted name and address label and preaddressed envelope, if you receive them. Both help to prevent mistakes and to assist in processing refunds faster.

We continue to be committed to improve and to provide quality service to you. We thank you for the suggestions you have given us in the past, many of which have been helpful and have been used. If you have more suggestions, please send them to me in writing at the Department of Taxation, P. O. Box 259, Honolulu, Hawaii 96809-0259.

MARIE Y. OKAMURA
Director of Taxation

DUE DATE: APRIL 20, 2001

State of Hawaii
Department of Taxation
P.O. Box 3559
Honolulu, Hawaii 96811-3559
(See page 7 for correct filing address)

Changes for 2000

- Form N-200V, Individual Income Tax Payment Voucher, should be used to send your payment to the Department.
- A check box has been added above the name and address area of the tax return to indicate whether your address is new or changed.
- You have the option of checking the "Yes" or "No" box in the signature area of your tax return to indicate whether you want to authorize the Department of Taxation to discuss your tax return with your paid preparer.
- Taxpayers contributing matching funds to an individual development account (IDA) may claim a nonrefundable IDA contribution tax credit equal to 50% of the contribution, or a charitable contribution deduction. IDA holders may claim a deduction from gross income for contributions to their IDA. (Act 160, SLH 1999; Act 184, SLH 2000)
- Provides a refundable 4% income tax credit for hotel construction and remodeling for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1998, and before January 1, 2003. (Act 195)
- Amends the income tax credit for increasing research activities by increasing the credit to 20% and making it refundable. (Act 297)
- Royalties and other income derived from patents, copyrights, and trade secrets developed and arising out of a qualified high technology business are excluded from gross income, adjusted gross income, and taxable income. (Act 297)
- Income received from stock options from a qualified high technology business is exempt from income tax. (Act 297)

Important Reminders for 2000

- If you are unable to file by April 20, 2001, you may request an extension to file Form N-13 on Hawaii Form N-101A. You may use federal Form 4868 instead of Form N-101A by substituting the appropriate amounts for Hawaii income tax purposes. Also, in the title area, any reference to U.S. should be crossed off and replaced with Hawaii.
- Please complete all required entries on your tax return. Failure to do so may result in a notice of adjustment being sent to you and you may be required to file an amended tax return to correct missing entries.
- Line 13 on Form N-13 MUST be filled in. Failure to do so could cause delays in processing your return.
- If you receive military reserve or Hawaii national guard duty pay, you should file Form N-11, N-12, or N-15 to claim the $1,750 exclusion.
- Please be sure to check the appropriate filing status box.
- Please check all arithmetic on the return. A correct return will help us process your return efficiently and issue refunds quickly.
- If you are married and filing separate returns, the refund from your spouse's return cannot be applied to your liability.
- Include your spouse's social security number if you are married whether a joint or separate return is filed. If your spouse is an alien and was issued an ITIN by the IRS, enter your spouse's ITIN.
- Attach your employee earning statements (HW-2's or federal W-2's) to the front of your return.
- If someone prepares your tax return and charges you a fee, the preparer must sign and complete the Paid Preparer's Information box.
- Please mail in your return on or before April 20, 2001.
- Please place proper postage on the envelope before mailing. If there is insufficient postage on the envelope, it will be returned to you by the U.S. Postal Service.
- Keep a copy of your return for your records.

Items To Note

- The Hawaii Taxpayer Bill of Rights is reprinted on page 38.
- Tax Facts is a Department of Taxation initiative for getting information to the public on tax topics which may be applicable or of interest to you. The Tax Facts issue reprinted on page 39 covers the use tax which is one of the least understood taxes in Hawaii. Many taxpayers are not aware they may be subject to the use tax if they buy a mail order catalog product or purchase goods, including a car, outside of Hawaii.
- The Department of Taxation is a proud partner with the Missing Child Center - Hawaii, Department of the Attorney General (MCCH). Photographs of missing children selected by the Center may appear in this instruction booklet on pages that would otherwise be blank. You can help bring these children home by looking at the photographs and calling MCCH at 1-808-586-1449 if you recognize a child.

Instructions for Hawaii Resident Income Tax Return — Form N-13

Form N-13 General Instructions

Who Must File

1. Every individual doing business in Hawaii during the taxable year must file a return, whether or not he or she derives any taxable income from that business. "Doing business" includes all activities engaged in or caused to be engaged in with the object of gain or economic benefit, direct or indirect, except personal services performed as an employee under the direction and control of an employer. For example, every person receiving rents from property owned in Hawaii is "doing business" and must file a return whether or not his or her expenses exceed the gross rental income.

2. Every individual receiving more than the following amounts of gross income subject to taxation under chapter 235, HRS, must file a return:

For Individuals Under Age 65
Filing Status	Gross Income of
Married filing separately	$1,990
Single or legally separated	$2,540
Single, head of household	$2,690
Qualifying widow(er) with a dependent child	$2,940
Married couple filing jointly	$3,980

For Individuals Age 65 or older
Filing Status	Gross Income of
Married filing separately	$3,030
Single or legally separated	$3,580
Single, head of household	$3,730
Qualifying widow(er) with a dependent child	$3,980
Married couple filing jointly, one is 65 or older	$5,020
Married couple filing jointly, both are 65 or older	$6,060

These threshold amounts will be higher for persons who are blind, deaf, or totally disabled, and who have completed and filed a certification with the Department of their disability on Forms N-172 and N-857 before filing their income tax return.

For individuals who can be claimed as dependents on the tax return of another taxpayer, the threshold amount is the amount of the dependents' standard deduction.

For nonresident aliens, the threshold amount is $1,040 for individuals under 65, and $2,080 for individuals 65 or older.

For nonresident individuals, the threshold amounts stated above must be multiplied by the ratio of Hawaii adjusted gross income to total adjusted gross income from all sources to determine whether the individual must file a return.

3. Individuals who took up residence in Hawaii after attaining the age of 65 years and before July 1, 1976, may elect to be taxed only on Hawaii source income. See Election Under Act 60, SLH 1976, on this page.

4. Children who receive unearned income during the taxable year and have not attained the age of 14 years before the end of the taxable year must file their own returns to report their income unless their parent or parents report that income. However, the Department of Taxation will, administratively, not require the filing of a State income tax return if the child's total earned and/or unearned income for the taxable year is $500 or less and the application of the standard deduction amount results in no taxable income for the child. Children who must file a return may need to file Form N-615, Computation of Tax for Children Under Age 14 Who Have Investment Income of More than $1,000. Parents may report income of their children by filing Form N-814, Parent's Election to Report Child's Interest and Dividends.

5. If you need to report additional tax from Form N-2, Distribution from an Individual Housing Account; Form N-103, Sale of Your Home; Form N-152, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions; Form N-312 or N-312A, Recapture of Capital Goods Excise Tax Credit; Form N-405, Tax on Accumulation Distribution of Trusts; Form N-586, Recapture of Low-Income Housing Tax Credit; or Form N-814, Parent's Election to Report Child's Interest and Dividends, then you must file a return regardless of income level.

Who Should File

Even if you do not have to file, you should file to get a refund if too much income tax was withheld from your pay. Also, if you are eligible for refundable credits, you need to file a return to claim the credits.

Residents and Nonresidents

Resident

A resident is taxed on income from all sources.

A resident must file an Individual Income Tax Return—Resident (Form N-11, N-12, or N-13), if required to do so.

A Hawaii resident is (1) Every individual domiciled in Hawaii, and (2) Every other individual whether domiciled in Hawaii or not, who resides in Hawaii for other than a temporary or transitory purpose. An individual domiciled outside Hawaii is presumed to be a resident if he or she spends more than 200 days in Hawaii during the taxable year. This presumption may be overcome by evidence satisfactory to the Department of Taxation that the individual maintained a permanent place of abode outside the State and was in the State for a temporary or transitory purpose. No person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence simply because of his or her presence or absence in compliance with military or naval orders of the United States, while engaged in aviation or navigation, or while a student at any institution of learning. See Tax Information Release No. 90-3, "Income Taxation and Eligibility for Credits of an Individual Taxpayer Whose Status Changes from Resident to Nonresident or from Nonresident to Resident".

Nonresident

A Hawaii nonresident is an individual who is in Hawaii for a temporary or transient purpose, and whose permanent domicile is not Hawaii.

A nonresident must file an Individual Income Tax Return—Nonresident and Part-Year Resident (Form N-15), if required to do so. A nonresident will be taxed on income from Hawaii sources only.

A nonresident married to a Hawaii resident may choose to file a joint return with the resident spouse on Form N-12; however, the nonresident will then be taxed on all income from all sources. For more information, see Married Filing Joint Return on page 8.

Election Under Act 60, SLH 1976

Individuals who took up residence in Hawaii after attaining the age of 65 years and before July 1, 1976, may elect to be taxed only on Hawaii source income. To make the election, attach a signed statement to Form N-12 setting forth the date that the individual established residence in Hawaii and the individual's date of birth (which must be before July 1, 1911). Individuals making this election must file a return regardless of the amount of income earned, and may not use Form N-11 or N-13.

Part-Year Resident

A part-year resident is an individual who was a Hawaii resident for part of the year, and who was a nonresident during the other part of the year. This includes those who moved to Hawaii during the year and those who moved away from Hawaii during the year.

A part-year resident must file an Individual Income Tax Return—Nonresident and Part-Year Resident (Form N-15), if required to do so. A part-year resident will be taxed on all income from all sources during the period of residency, and on income from Hawaii sources only during the period of nonresidency.

Domicile Defined

The term "domicile" means the place where an individual has a true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which place the individual has, whenever absent, the intention of returning. It is the place in which an individual has voluntarily fixed the habitation of himself or herself and family, not for a mere special or temporary purpose, but with the present intention of making a permanent home. Three things are necessary to create a new domicile: first, abandonment of the old domicile; second, the intent to establish a new domicile; and third, actual physical presence in the new domicile. Once a domicile is established, the intent to abandon it is not itself sufficient to create a new domicile; a new domicile must be shown.

Reminder: If you are in Hawaii because of military orders and do not intend to make Hawaii your permanent home, you are not considered a Hawaii resident for income tax purposes, even though you have been in Hawaii for more than 200 days in 2000. File a resident return with your home state, and file a Hawaii nonresident and part-year resident return (Form N-15) to report your Hawaii income.

Resident and Nonresident Examples

Note: For more information, see Tax Information Release No. 90-3, "Income Taxation and Eligibility for Credits of an Individual Taxpayer Whose Status Changes from Resident to Nonresident or from Nonresident to Resident", Tax Information Release No. 90-10, "Clarification of Taxation and the Eligibility for Personal Exemptions and Credits of Residents and Nonresidents in the Military and Spouses and Dependents of Persons in the Military", and Tax Information Release No. 97-1, "Determination of Residence Status".

Example 1—A Hawaii resident who enlists in the military normally will remain a Hawaii resident regardless of the length of absence from Hawaii while stationed outside of Hawaii.

Example 2—A Hawaii resident working in a foreign country will remain a Hawaii resident unless permanent resident status is granted by the foreign country.

Example 3—Foreign students who are granted entry into the United States on an “F” visa are nonresidents for Hawaii tax purposes. Researchers and faculty members who are granted entry into the United States on “H”, “J”, or “Q” visas, and who have been in Hawaii for more than 200 days during the taxable year may be considered Hawaii residents.

Example 4—Spouses of those in the military service do not become Hawaii residents if their principal reason for moving to Hawaii was the transfer of the service member spouse to Hawaii, and if it is their intention to leave Hawaii when the service member spouse either is transferred to another military station or leaves the service.

Example 5—A Hawaii resident who marries a nonresident will remain a Hawaii resident unless the three requirements for changing his or her domicile are also met. (Refer to “Domicile Defined” on page 5.) This situation applies in reverse to a nonresident who marries a resident. A person’s residence status will not change just because of marriage.

Which Form to File

You May Be Able to Use Form N-13 if:

- You had only wages, salaries, tips, interest, ordinary dividends, and unemployment compensation.

Note: If you had more than $400 in interest income or more than $400 in dividends, you may still file Form N-13, provided you are not required to file Form N-11, N-12, or N-15 for any of the reasons listed on this page.

- Your taxable income (adjusted gross income less standard deduction and personal exemptions) is less than $100,000.
- You do not itemize your deductions.
- You do not claim adjustments to income.

You may WANT TO use Form N-11 or N-12 and you may pay less tax if you can:

- Itemize your deductions.
- Claim adjustments to income.
- Claim credits you can’t claim on Form N-13.

You may HAVE TO use Form N-11 or N-12 because of:

- The amount or kind of income you receive.
- Forms or schedules you file, or other taxes that can be reported only on Form N-11 or N-12.

You Must Use Form N-11 or N-12 if:

Amount of Income

- Your taxable income is $100,000 or more.

Kinds of Income

You had income other than wages, salaries, tips, interest, ordinary dividends, and unemployment compensation, such as:

- Bartering income (fair market value of goods or services you received in return for your goods or services).
- Income from self-employment.
- Gain from the sale of your home or other property, or capital gain distributions.
- Gain from the sale or exchange (including barter) of coins, gold, silver, gems, etc.
- Annuities, including lump-sum distributions.

- Alimony.
- Scholarships and Fellowships.

Itemized Deductions

Either husband or wife itemizes deductions. Examples are:

- Payments for medical insurance and medical and dental care that are more than 7.5% of your adjusted gross income.
- Interest on mortgages.
- State and local income and real estate taxes. This includes state and local income taxes withheld on your Form W-2.
- Gifts to churches, charities (such as the Cancer Society, Red Cross, United Way), and similar organizations.
- Union dues and safety helmets, tools, professional journals, or other materials used in your job.
- Net personal casualty or theft loss that is more than $100 and 10% of adjusted gross income.
- Your spouse files a separate return and itemizes deductions. Exception: You can still use Form N-13 if you have a dependent child and can meet the tests on page 8 under Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses).

Here is a Test to Help You Decide Whether to Itemize

You should itemize if your deductions are more than:

- $1,900 and you are Married filing a joint return or a Qualifying widow(er) with a dependent child.
- $1,650 and you are a Head of Household.
- $1,500 and you are Single.
- $950 and you are Married filing a separate return.

Other Forms

You file any of these forms:

- Form N-1, Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals, for 2000.
- Form N-103, Sale of Your Home.

Other Conditions

You meet any one of these conditions:

- You applied any part of your 1999 overpayment to estimated tax for 2000, or if you want to apply any part of your 2000 overpayment to estimated tax for 2001.
- You received interest or dividends as a nominee (that is, in your name) for someone else.
- You received or paid accrued interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates.
- You are claiming the benefit of persons taking up residence in Hawaii after attaining the age of 65 years and before July 1, 1976.
- You are a resident husband or wife making a joint return if the other spouse is a nonresident, or the other spouse is:
 - taking up Hawaii residence during the tax year, (Part-year resident)
 - giving up Hawaii residence during the tax year, (Part-year resident) or
 - claiming the benefit of persons residing in Hawaii after attaining age 65 and before July 1, 1976.
- You make your return on the fiscal year basis which began in 2000.
- You make your return using an accounting method other than the cash receipts and disbursements method.
- At the end of 2000 you were married to a nonresident alien or dual status alien who had U.S. source income, and you do not file a joint return. Exception: You can still use Form N-13 if you meet the tests on page 8 under Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses).

Adjustments to Income

You claim adjustments to income. Examples are:

- Payments to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) or Keogh plan.
- Moving expenses (See Form N-139)
- Interest penalty on early withdrawal of savings.
- Alimony paid.
- Payments to an individual housing account.
- Exclusion of first $1,750 of military reserve or Hawaii national guard duty pay.
- Contributions by an individual development account (IDA) holder to their IDA.

Tax Credits

You claim any of these tax credits:

- Credit for income tax paid to another state or to a foreign country.
- Credit from a regulated investment company (no form; see Form N-11/N-12 instructions).
- Fuel tax credit for commercial fishers (Form N-163).
- Low-Income Housing Credit (Form N-586)
- Enterprise Zone Tax Credit (Form N-756)
- Credit for Employment of Vocational Rehabilitation Referrals (Form N-884).
- Capital Goods Excise Tax Credit (Form N-312).
- Motion Picture and Film Production Income Tax Credit (Form N-316).
- Tax Credits for High Technology (Form N-318)
- Individual Development Account Contribution Tax Credit (Form N-320)
- Hotel Construction and Remodeling Tax Credit (Form N-314)

You Must Use Form N-15 if:

- You were a nonresident for the full year, or, if married filing jointly, both spouses were nonresidents for the full year
- You are taking up residence in Hawaii during the tax year. (Part-year resident)
- You are giving up residence in Hawaii during the tax year. (Part-year resident)

When to File

You should file as soon as you can after January 1, but not later than April 20, 2001. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, file by the next regular workday. If you file late, you may have to pay penalties and interest. Please see the instructions for Penalties and Interest on page 13. If you know that you cannot meet the deadline, you should ask for an extension on Form N-101A, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Hawaii Individual Income Tax Return. This is an extension of time to file, not an extension of time for payment of tax. Federal Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, may be used in lieu of Form N-101A.

The official U.S. Post Office cancellation mark will be considered primary evidence of the date of filing of tax documents and payments. If you want to keep evidence that you mailed your return on time, ask your Post Office for a Certificate of Mailing. It is NOT necessary to get a certified or registered mail return receipt.

Hawaii has adopted the Internal Revenue Code provision to allow documents and payments delivered by a designated private delivery service to qualify for the “timely mailing treated as timely filing/paying rule.” The Department of Taxation will conform to the Internal Revenue Service listing of designated private delivery service and type of delivery services qualifying for the “timely mailing treated as timely filing/paying rule." Timely filing of mail which does not bear the U.S. Post Office cancellation mark or the date recorded or marked by the designated delivery service will be determined by reference to other competent evidence.

Where to File

Please use the addressed envelope that came with your forms. If you do not have an addressed envelope, or if you moved during the year, mail your return to the taxation district office in which you reside or have your principal place of business. If you have no residence in Hawaii, file with the Oahu District Office, P. O. Box 3559, Honolulu, Hawaii 96811-3559.

The State of Hawaii is divided into four taxation districts. You should file your return, pay your tax, get your forms, or conduct other Hawaii tax affairs with the taxation district office located in the county where you reside or have your principal business.

Other Information

Death of Taxpayer

Did the taxpayer die before filing a return for 2000? If so, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file a return and sign it for the person who died (decedent) if the decedent was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

If the decedent did not have to file a return but either had State income tax withheld, made estimated tax payments, or is eligible for various tax credits, a return must be filed to get a refund.

If your spouse died in 2000 and you did not remarry in 2000, or if your spouse died in 2001 before filing a return for 2000, you may still file a joint return for the 2000 tax year.

A return filed for a deceased taxpayer, including a joint return with a surviving spouse, must have the word "DECEASED" written in the upper left hand corner of the return. The word "DECEASED" and the date of death also must be written after the deceased taxpayer's first name and middle initial in the name and address area of the tax return.

Generally, the personal representative or other responsible individual must sign the return on behalf of the decedent. If a refund is due, Form N-110, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, must be completed and attached to the return to ensure that the refund check will be issued in the name of the surviving spouse, personal representative, or other responsible individual instead of the decedent's name. A personal representative or other individual may be required to attach other documents; see Form N-110 for further information.

Exception for joint returns filed by surviving spouse. If a joint return is being filed by the decedent and the decedent's spouse, the spouse should write, "Filing as surviving spouse", on the signature line which the decedent would have signed, and then the surviving spouse should sign his or her name on the other signature line. If a refund is being claimed on the return, Form N-110 is not required. The refund check will be issued to the surviving spouse.

Declaration of Estimated Tax

Basic rules. Individuals who must pay more tax than is withheld, or who have no withholding, may have to file a declaration of estimated tax and pay that tax in a lump sum or installments. Income tax obligations might not be satisfied through withholding when an individual has income not subject to withholding, such as from self-employment, rent, gains from sales of property, interest and dividend income, unemployment compensation, or distributions from deferred compensation plans.

Who Must File a Declaration on Form N-1. An individual subject to Hawaii net income tax generally must file Form N-1, Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals, unless: (a) his or her estimated tax liability for the taxable year, after taking into account all taxes withheld or collected at the source, is less than $500, or (b) the taxpayer did not have any tax liability for the preceding taxable year. See Form N-1 for details.

Date and Payment of Estimated Tax. Your declaration for 2001 must be filed on or before April 20, 2001. The tax may be paid in full with the declaration, or in equal installments on or before April 20, 2001, June 20, 2001, September 20, 2001, and January 20, 2002. Each installment payment must be submitted with a payment voucher. Make checks or money orders payable to the "Hawaii State Tax Collector".

Penalties. If you are required to file a declaration but you fail to do so, you may be subject to penalties. See Penalties and Interest on page 13.

Note: If you file a declaration for 2001, you must use Form N-11 or N-12 to claim the payments you made.

Special Instructions for Nonresident Aliens

In certain situations, a taxpayer may be considered a nonresident alien for federal income tax purposes and a resident for Hawaii income tax purposes. In these situations, the special rules applicable to individuals who are considered nonresident aliens for federal income tax purposes will apply when the individual files a Hawaii resident income tax return. See Tax Information Release No. 97-1, "Determination of Residence Status".

Here's How to Fill in Form N-13

(The circled numbers in the following instructions correspond to the circled numbers on the sample form on pages 17 and 18.)

1 Name, Address, Social Security Number, and Occupation

Note: A check box has been added above the name and address area of the tax return. Please check the box if your address is new or changed.

Take the mailing label from the forms booklet we sent to you and attach it to your return. Make sure the information is correct. Draw a line through any incorrect information and write the correct information directly onto the label. Add any missing information, such as an apartment number. If the label is for a joint return and the social security numbers are not listed in the same order as the first names, show the numbers in the correct order.

Do not attach your label to the return until you have completed and checked all entries. Use of the label helps us identify your account, saves processing time, and speeds refunds.

Do not attach your label to the envelope. It may get separated from your return.

If you did not receive a label, print or type the entries in this section.

Do not use the IRS mailing label.

Name

You must use your legal name. Nicknames are not permitted. If you have changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., make sure you immediately notify the Social Security Administration so that the name on your tax return is the same as the name on the Social Security records. If these names do not match, your refund may be delayed.

If you file joint returns, write the names in the same order every year. There is a separate line for the spouse's name.

Write any descriptions (e.g., Jr., III, etc.) after your last name.

Address

Write your current mailing address in the space provided. If you receive your mail "in care of" someone else (i.e., your mail is sent to an address belonging to someone other than yourself), fill in that person's name in the space provided for the mailing address. Be sure to write "c/o" before the person's name.

Important: If your address should change after you file your return, you must notify the Department in writing of your new address. Please include your social security number and your signature. Any refund checks due to you will not be forwarded to your new address by the U.S. Postal Service, and you might not receive your income tax forms and instructions next year.

Social Security Number

Write your social security number in the space provided. If you are married, you must also write your spouse's social security number in the space provided whether joint or separate returns are filed. Your social security numbers must be written in the same order as your names are written on your return.

If you are an alien and was issued an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) by the IRS, enter your ITIN.

Occupation

Write your occupation in the space provided. If married and filing a joint return, also write your spouse's occupation in the space provided.

2 Hawaii Election Campaign Fund

This fund was established by the Hawaii State Legislature to support public financing of Hawaii governor's election campaigns.

You may have $2 go to the fund by checking the "Yes" box. On a joint return, one or both of you may choose to have $2 go to this fund, or both may choose not to.

If you check "Yes," it will not change the tax or refund shown on your return.

3 Boxes 1 through 5 Filing Status

Check either box 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5 as appropriate. Do not put a check in more than 1 box.

Note: More than one filing status may apply to you. Choose the one that will give you the lowest tax.

Filing Status Box 1 Single

Select box 1, Single, if on December 31, 2000, you were unmarried, divorced, or separated from your spouse under a separate maintenance decree. State law governs whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated.

If you are married on December 31, 2000, consider yourself married for the whole year.

If your spouse died during 2000, consider yourself married to that spouse for the whole year, unless you remarried before the end of 2000.

If you are unmarried and provide a home for certain other persons, you may be able to file as Head of Household.

If you were married in 2000, had a child living with you, and lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2000, you may be able to file as Head of Household. See Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses) on this page.

Filing Status Box 2 Married Filing a Joint Return (even if only one of you had income)

In most cases, married couples will pay less tax if they file a joint return. You must report all income, exemptions, deductions, and credits for you and your spouse. Both of you must sign the return, even if only one of you had income.

You and your spouse can file a joint return even if you did not live together for the whole year. Both of you are responsible for any tax due on a joint return, so if one of you does not pay, the other may have to.

Note: If you filed a joint return, and you and your spouse decide to file separate returns for the year, both of you MUST file amended returns on or before the due date of the original return (April 20). You may not change your filing status from married filing jointly to married filing separately after that date.

If you and your spouse filed separate returns, and you decide to file a joint return for the year, you may do so without full payment of the amount shown as tax on such joint return.

If your spouse died in 2000 or in 2001 before filing a return for 2000, see Death of Taxpayer, on page 7.

Tax Savings.—If you decide not to file a joint return and plan to file a separate return, see if you can lower your tax by meeting the tests described under Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses) on this page. If you qualify, check Box 4 for Head of Household.

Special Rule for Nonresidents of Hawaii Who File a Joint Return With a Hawaii Resident.—If at the end of the taxable year you were a nonresident of Hawaii (i.e., a U.S. resident who is not a resident of Hawaii) who is married to a resident of Hawaii, you may choose to file a joint return with the resident spouse on Form N-12. However, if a joint return is filed, you and your spouse must agree to be taxed on your combined worldwide income.

Special Rule for Nonresident and Dual-Status Aliens.—Generally, you cannot file a joint return if either spouse was a nonresident alien at any time during the tax year. However, nonresident aliens married to U.S. citizens or residents can elect to be taxed as a U.S. resident and file joint returns. If a joint return is filed, you and your spouse must agree to be taxed on your combined worldwide income.

Note: For purposes of filing a joint return, common law marriages are not recognized under Hawaii law unless they began in a state which permits common law marriages.

Filing Status Box 3 Married Filing a Separate Return

You may file separate returns whether both you and your spouse had income, only one of you had income, or neither of you had income.

If you choose to file separate returns, both you and your spouse must figure your tax the same way. This means that if one of you itemizes your deductions, the other must also itemize their deductions. (If you itemize your deductions, both of you must file Form N-11, N-12, or N-15). You each report only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits, and you are responsible only for the tax due on your own return.

If you file a separate return, write your spouse's full name in the space after Box 3 and your spouse's social security number in the block provided for that number.

If your spouse does not file a Hawaii tax return, you may be able to claim the exemptions for your spouse. See instructions for lines 6a and 6b on page 9.

Special Rule for Nonresident and Dual-Status Aliens.—Married nonresident aliens must file separate returns. However, nonresident aliens who are married to U.S. citizens or residents and who elect to be taxed as a U.S. resident may file joint returns. However, see Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses).

Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses)

You will be considered unmarried if you meet ALL of the following tests:

- 1) You file a separate return, and
- 2) You paid more than half the cost of keeping up your home for the tax year, and
- 3) Your spouse did not live in your home during the last 6 months of the tax year, and
- 4) Your home was, for more than 6 months of the year, the principal home of your child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child whom you can claim as a dependent or whom you could claim as your dependent except that the noncustodial parent will claim the child as a dependent under the rules discussed later, for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on page 9.

If you are considered unmarried under these rules, you will qualify to file as Head of Household.

Special Rule for Nonresident and Dual-Status Aliens.—If you were a nonresident or dual-status alien during the tax year, the special rules for Married Persons Who Live Apart (and Abandoned Spouses) will not apply to you unless you meet all of the tests previously stated, and you are a resident of Canada or Mexico. If you are considered unmarried under these rules, you may file as a single individual rather than married filing separately. You cannot file as Head of Household.

Filing Status Box 4 Head of Household

There are special tax rates for a person who can meet the tests for Head of Household. These rates are lower than the rates for Single or Married Filing a Separate Return.

You may be eligible to file as Head of Household if you were unmarried, or considered unmarried, on the last day of the year. You must have paid more than half the cost of keeping up a home that was the principal home for more than half the year for you and:

- 1) Your unmarried child, grandchild, stepchild or adopted child. This child does not have to be your dependent.
- 2) Your married child, grandchild, stepchild or adopted child whom you can claim as your dependent without a Multiple Support Declaration or whom you could claim as your dependent except that the noncustodial parent will claim the child as a dependent under the rules for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on page 9.
- 3) Any other relative, including your mother or father, whom you can claim as a dependent without a Multiple Support Declaration. For persons who qualify as a relative, see Children and Other Dependents on page 9.

Also, you may be eligible to file as Head of Household if you were unmarried, or considered unmarried, on the last day of the year, and pay more than half the cost of keeping up a home that was the principal home for the whole year for your mother or father whom you can claim as a dependent without a Multiple Support Declaration, but who does not live with you.

Note: If you received payments under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program and used them to pay part of the cost of keeping up this home, you may not count these amounts as furnished by you.

Special Rule for Nonresident and Dual-Status Aliens.—If you were a nonresident or dual-status alien during the tax year, you cannot file as Head of Household.

Filing Status Box 5 Qualifying Widow(er) with Dependent Child

If your spouse died during 1998 or 1999 and you did not remarry before the end of 2000, file a return for 2000 showing only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits. However, you can figure your tax at joint return rates if you meet ALL 3 of the following tests:

- You could have filed a joint return with your spouse for the year your spouse died. (It does not matter whether or not you actually filed a joint return.)
- Your dependent child, stepchild, or foster child lived with you (except for temporary absences for vacation or school).
- You paid over half the cost of keeping up the home for this child for the whole year.

Check box 5, Qualifying Widow(er) with Dependent Child, and show the year your spouse died in the space provided. Do not claim an exemption for your spouse. (You can claim the exemption only for the year your spouse died.)

If your spouse died in 2000 and you did not remarry, consider yourself married for the whole year. If your spouse died before 1998 and you did not remarry, you may check Box 4 if you meet the tests under Head of Household on page 8. Otherwise you must file as Single.

Note: See Death of Taxpayer on page 7 for more information.

Special Rule for Nonresident and Dual-Status Aliens.—The special rules or Qualifying Widow(er) With Dependent Child will not apply unless the surviving spouse meets all of the tests previously stated, and was a resident alien or U.S. citizen the year their spouse died. The residency status refers to the surviving spouse's actual status, and not the election that some nonresident aliens make to be taxed as U.S. residents.

4 Lines 6a through 6e Exemptions

Lines 6a and 6b Boxes

REGULAR — FOR YOURSELF AND SPOUSE

Take one exemption for yourself unless you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return. (See Children and Other Dependents on this page). If you are married, you can take an exemption for your spouse if you file a joint return. If you file a separate return, you can take your spouse's exemption(s) only if your spouse is not filing a return, had no income, and was not the dependent of someone else.

If, at the end of 2000 you were divorced or legally separated, you cannot take an exemption for your former spouse. If you were separated by a divorce that is not final (interlocutory decree), you may still take an exemption for your spouse if you file a joint return.

If your spouse died during 2000, and you did not remarry before the end of 2000, check the boxes for the exemptions you could have taken for your spouse on the date of death. Please see the instructions for Death of Taxpayer on page 7.

AGE 65 OR OVER — FOR YOURSELF AND SPOUSE

Take another exemption if you or your spouse were age 65 or over. You MAY NOT take this additional exemption for dependents. If you or your spouse's 65th birthday is on January 1, 2001, you can take the extra exemption for age for 2000.

If you file married filing separately, you may NOT claim the extra exemption for age 65 or over for your spouse.

Lines 6c and 6d Boxes Children and Other Dependents

Enter on lines 6c and 6d the full names, social security numbers, and other information for your dependent children and other dependents. Each dependent must have a social security number. Enter the number of dependent children listed in box 6c. Enter the number of other dependents listed in box 6d.

Each person you claim as a dependent has to meet the following tests a through e:

a. Income

The dependent received less than $2,800 gross income. (The test does not have to be met for your child who was under 19 at the end of the year, or a full-time student at least 5 months of the year and under 24 years of age at the end of the year.) Please see the instructions for Student Dependent on this page.

Note: Gross income does not include nontaxable benefits such as social security or welfare benefits.

b. Support

The dependent received over half of his or her support from you, or is treated as receiving over half of his or her support from you under the rules for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents on this page, or Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpayers on this page. If you file a joint return, the support can be from either spouse.

In figuring total support, you must include money the dependent used for his or her own support, even if this money was not taxable (for example, social security benefits, gifts, savings, welfare benefits, etc.).

If your child was a student, do not include amounts he or she received as scholarships.

Support includes items such as food, a place to live, clothes, medical and dental care, and education. In figuring support, use the actual cost of these items. However, the cost of a place to live is figured at its fair rental value.

Do not include in support items like income and social security taxes, premiums for life insurance, or funeral expenses for a deceased dependent.

You must include capital items such as a car or furniture in figuring total support, but only if these items are actually given to, or purchased by, the dependent for the dependent's use or benefit. Do not include the cost of a capital item such as furniture for the household or for use by persons other than the dependent.

c. Married Dependent

The dependent did not file a joint return with his or her spouse.

Note: However, if neither the dependent nor the dependent's spouse is required to file, but they file a joint return to get a refund of tax withheld, you may claim him or her if the other four tests are met.

d. Citizenship or Residence

The dependent was a citizen or resident of the United States, a resident of Canada or Mexico, or an alien child adopted by and living with a U.S. citizen in a foreign country.

e. Relationship

The dependent met test 1 or 2 below:

1. Was related to you (or your spouse if you file a joint return) in one of the following ways:

Child	Sister	Mother-in-law	or, if related by blood:
Stepchild	Grandchild	Father-in-law
Mother	Stepbrother	Brother-in-law	Uncle
Father	Stepsister	Sister-in-law	Nephew
Grandparent	Stepmother	Daughter-in-law	Aunt
Brother	Stepfather	Son-in-law	Niece

2. Was any other person who lived in your home as a member of your household for the whole year. A person is not a member of your household if at any time during your tax year the relationship between you and that person is against local law.

For this purpose child includes:

- Your son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter;
- A child who lived in your home as a member of your family if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption; and
- A foster child (any child who lived in your home as a member of your family for the whole year).

Student Dependent

Even if your child had gross income of $2,800 or more, you can claim the child as a dependent if he or she can meet tests b, c, and d: AND

- was under 24 years of age at the end of the year, and
- was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 2000; OR
- took a full-time, on-farm training course during any 5 months of 2000. (The course had to be given by a school or a State, county, or local government agency.)

The school must have a regular teaching staff, course of study, and a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance. For this purpose school includes:

- elementary, junior and senior high schools;
- colleges and universities; and technical, trade, and mechanical schools.

However, school does not include on-the-job training courses or correspondence schools.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents

The parent having custody of a child for the greater portion of the year (the custodial parent) will generally be entitled to the dependency exemption. This rule applies to parents not living together during the last six months of the calendar year and those divorced or separated under a separation agreement.

This general rule does not apply in the case of the following three exceptions:

- a. There is a multiple support agreement in effect, OR
- b. The custodial parent has agreed to release his or her claim to the dependency exemption to the noncustodial parent in a decree or agreement in effect before January, 1985, and the noncustodial parent furnishes at least $600 support for the child within the taxable year, OR
- c. The custodial parent relinquishes the exemption and provides the noncustodial parent with a written statement that the custodial parent will not claim the dependency exemption for the taxable year. This statement shall be attached to the return of the noncustodial parent who claims the exemption. Federal Form 8332 may be used for this purpose.

Support by the spouse of a remarried parent will be treated as support by that parent.

Dependent Supported by Two or More Taxpayers

Sometimes two or more taxpayers together pay more than half of another person's support, but no one alone pays over half of that person's support.

One of the taxpayers may claim the person as a dependent if all of the following are met:

1. The tests for income, married dependent, citizenship or residence, and relationship as discussed under Lines 6c and 6d.

2. The taxpayer paid more than 10% of the dependent's support, and
3. The taxpayer attaches to his or her return a signed Federal Form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, from every other qualifying person who paid more than 10% of the support. This form states that the person who signs it will not claim an exemption in 2000 for the person he or she helped to support.

Birth or Death of Dependent

You can take an exemption for a dependent who was born or who died during 2000 if he or she met the tests for a dependent while alive. This means that a baby who lived only a few minutes can be claimed as a dependent.

Income

A Hawaii resident is subject to income tax on his or her entire income earned worldwide.

Examples of Income You Must Report

- Wages, including salaries, bonuses, commissions, fees, and tips.
- U.S. Cost of Living Allowance.
- Living Quarter Allowance.
- Dividends (Part II)
- Interest (Part I) on:
 - tax refunds;
 - bank deposits, bonds, notes;
 - bonds issued by other states and local governments; and
 - accounts with savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks, credit unions, etc.
- Unemployment compensation benefits.
- Temporary Disability Insurance Benefits to the extent that such amounts:
 - are attributable to contributions by your employer which were not includible in your gross income, or
 - are paid by your employer.

Examples of Income You Do Not Report

- Pensions where no employee contributions are involved.
- All Government payments and benefits made to veterans and their families.
- Dividends on Veteran's Government Insurance
- Benefits paid by the Hawaii Retirement System or similar public (federal, city and county, or other state) retirement system.
- Workers' compensation, insurance, damages, etc., for bodily injury or sickness.
- Interest on Federal, Hawaii State and County municipal bonds. Also, U.S. Savings Bonds.
- Interest on bonds issued by the Governments of Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and Guam.
- Life insurance proceeds upon death.
- Social Security benefits.
- Railroad Retirement Act benefits.
- Gifts, inheritances, bequests.
- Compensation by Hawaii or the U.S. to a patient affected with leprosy.
- Child support.
- Welfare benefits.
- Amounts you received from an insurance company because you lost the use of your home due to fire or other casualty to the extent the amounts were more than the cost of your normal expenses while living in your home. (You must report reimbursements for normal living expenses as income.)
- Contributions to an annuity purchased by qualified nonprofit organization or public school or deferred compensation plans with respect to service for State or local government.

- Amounts you received as combat duty pay while deployed to an area designated as a combat zone by the President of the United States.
- Royalties and other income derived from patents, copyrights, and trade secrets developed and arising out of a qualified high technology business.
- Stock options income from a qualified high technology business.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

The Department of Taxation is requiring individual taxpayers to round off cents to the nearest whole dollar for all dollar entries on the tax return and schedules. To do so, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example: $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.69 becomes $3. If you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, schedule, or worksheet, you may choose to use one of two methods. Once a method of rounding is established, you must use the same method throughout the return. The first method is to include the cents when adding and round off only the total. The other method is to round off each entry. For example: You received two W-2 forms, one showing Hawaii withholding of $50.55 and one showing Hawaii withholding of $185.73. For rounding method 1, show your total Hawaii withholding as $236, ($50.55 + $185.73 = $236.28 rounded to $236). For rounding method 2, show your total Hawaii withholding as $237, ($50.55 rounded to $51.00 + $185.73 rounded to $186.00 = $51 + $186 = $237).

5 Line 7 Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Enter the total of all the wages shown on your HW-2 forms. If you received federal Form W-2, report the amount in box 17, State wages, tips, etc. For a joint return, add the totals for you and your spouse. Report all wages you received even if you don't have an HW-2 form. If all your tips are not shown on your HW-2 forms, add these amounts in, too. Include amounts received under an employer-paid dependent care benefit plan from Schedule X, Part III. If you have received any benefits from such a plan for the taxable year, you must complete Schedule X and file it with your Form N-13. Also, include on this line amounts received as cost of living allowance, living quarter allowance, and temporary disability insurance benefits.

If you lose an HW-2 form, ask your employer for a new one. If your employer does not give you an HW-2 form by January 31, or if the one you have is not correct, contact your employer as soon as possible. Only your employer can issue or correct your HW-2 form. If you can't get an HW-2 form from your employer by February 15, contact your taxation district office.

6 Lines 8 and 9 Interest and Dividend Income

Line 8 Interest Income

Enter your total interest income from banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, notes and loans, and others on line 8. Include any interest you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it even if it wasn't entered in your passbook. Be sure to include interest on tax refunds.

If your total interest income is more than $400 you must list the name of the payer and the amount of interest on page 2 of Form N-13.

Note: If you received interest as a nominee for someone else, or you received or paid accrued interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates, you may NOT file Form N-13. You MUST file Form N-11 or N-12 instead.

Line 9 Ordinary Dividends

Note: Act 297, Session Laws of Hawaii 2000, provides that all income received from stock options from a qualified high technology business (including dividend income earned from stock received through the exercise of the stock options) by an employee, officer, or director, or investor who qualifies for the high technology business investment tax credit that would otherwise be taxed as ordinary income to those persons is exempt from Hawaii income taxes.

Enter your total ordinary dividends on line 9. Ordinary dividends are dividends paid out of earnings and profits. Assume that any dividend you receive is an ordinary dividend unless the paying corporation tells you otherwise. Dividends that are reinvested in stock purchase plans are taxable and should also be entered on line 9.

Do not include nontaxable distributions on line 9. In general, distributions that are NOT made out of earnings and profits are a return of your investment and will not be taxed until you get back your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by the amount of nontaxable distributions received. After you get back all of your costs (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains on Form N-11 or N-12.

If the total of your ordinary dividends is more than $400 you must list the name of the payer and the amount of dividends on page 2 of Form N-13.

Note: If you received any capital gain distributions, or you received dividends as a nominee for someone else, you may NOT file Form N-13. You MUST file Form N-11 or N-12 instead.

7 Line 10 Unemployment Compensation

Unemployment compensation (insurance) you received is taxable.

You should get a statement, on federal Form 1099-G, showing the total unemployment compensation paid to you during the year. For payments in 2000, you should receive this statement by January 31, 2001.

Enter on line 10 the amount from federal Form 1099-G.

Do not include on line 10 any supplemental unemployment benefits you received from a company-financed supplemental unemployment benefit fund. Instead, report these benefits as wages on Form N-13, line 7.

8 Line 11 Adjusted Gross Income

Add the amounts on lines 7, 8, 9 and 10.

Note: If you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return, check the box under line 11.

9 Line 12 Standard Deduction

Taxpayers who do not itemize their deductions may reduce their adjusted gross income by the amount of the standard deduction appropriate to their filing status. The amount of the standard deduction for each filing status is listed below:

Filing Status	Standard Deduction
Single	$1,500
Married filing jointly	$1,900
Married filing separately	$ 950
Head of Household	$1,650
Qualifying Widow(er)	$1,900

Standard deduction for dependents. Your standard deduction is limited to the greater of $500 or your earned income (up to the full standard deduction for your filing status). Enter the appropriate amount on line 12. The standard deduction for an individual who can be claimed as a dependent on the tax return of another taxpayer is computed using the worksheet below.

- A. Enter the amount from Form N-13, line 7 A. _____
- B. Minimum amount..... B. 500.00
- C. Compare the amounts on lines A and B. Enter the LARGER of the two amounts here..... C. _____
- D. Maximum amount. Enter the full standard deduction for your filing status, shown in the chart above, here. D. _____
- E. Compare the amounts on lines C and D above. Enter the SMALLER of the two amounts here and on Form N-13, line 12..... E. _____

Line 13

Subtract line 12 from line 11 and show the difference on line 13.

REMINDER: This line MUST be filled in.

10 Line 14 Exemptions

Regular Exemptions

You are allowed $1,040 for each exemption you can claim. Multiply $1,040 by the number of exemptions shown on line 6e. Enter the amount on line 14. Remember, if you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return, you may not claim an exemption for yourself.

Blind, Deaf, or Totally Disabled — Definition, Certification and Exemptions.

Check the appropriate box(es) on line 14 if you are blind, deaf or disabled and your impairment has been certified. The disability exemption will be disallowed and your return processed without the exemption(s) claimed if you have not qualified for this special exemption by completing Forms N-172 and N-857 prior to filing your return and you will be required to file an amended return AFTER submitting the Forms N-172 and N-857, in order to claim this exemption.

"Blind" means a person whose central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or whose visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the field of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

"Deaf" means a person whose average loss in the speech frequencies (500-2000 Hertz) in the better ear is 82 decibels, A.S.A., or worse.

"Person totally disabled" means a person who is totally and permanently disabled either physically or mentally, which results in the person's inability to engage in any substantial gainful business or occupation. It is presumed that a person whose gross income, before deductions and exemptions, exceeds $30,000 per year is engaged in a substantial, gainful business or occupation.

The impairment of sight, deafness or disability shall be certified to on the basis of a written report on an examination performed by a qualified ophthalmologist or qualified optometrist or a qualified otolaryngologist, or a qualified physician, as the case may be.

A blind, deaf, or totally disabled person who qualifies and elects the special exemption shall be allowed the following exemptions:

Single—	$ 7,000
Husband and wife —	$14,000
Husband or wife (joint return) —	$ 8,040
Husband or wife (both over 65)—	$ 9,080

For more information, see Tax Information Release No. 89-3, "State Tax Benefits Available to Persons with Impaired Sight, Impaired Hearing, or Who are Totally Disabled" and Tax Information Release No. 94-2, "State Tax Benefits Available to Persons Totally Disabled".

Note: If you claim this special exemption, you will not be able to claim the additional exemptions for your children or other dependents.

Enter the appropriate amount on line 14.

11 Line 15 Taxable Income

Subtract line 14 from line 13. This is your taxable income. Your tax is figured on this amount. If line 15 is less than $100,000, please continue.

If line 15 is $100,000 or more, you CANNOT use Form N-13. You MUST file Form N-11 or N-12.

If You Qualify, the Hawaii Department of Taxation Will Figure Your Tax

If you want us to, we will figure your tax for you. If you paid too much we will send you a refund. If you did not pay enough, we will bill you for the balance. We will not charge you interest or penalties if the bill for tax due is paid within 30 days of the notice date, or by the due date for your return, whichever is later. We can do this ONLY if:

- You fill in the parts of your return through lines 15, 17, and 19a through 19f, if you wish to claim the applicable tax credits. The Department of Taxation will NOT fill in these lines for you.
- You attach a copy of all your HW-2 forms to your Form N-13.
- You complete Parts I and II on page 2 of Form N-13 if required.
- You (and your spouse if filing a joint return) sign and date your return.

CAUTION: The Department of Taxation will complete lines 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, or 23 if left blank. You MUST, however, complete lines 15, 17, and 19a through 19f if you qualify and wish to CLAIM any of these credits. You will not receive ANY credit for what you did not claim.

12 Line 16 Figuring Your Income Tax

If line 15 is less than $100,000, find your tax in the Hawaii Tax Table on pages 20-31 unless you must file Form N-615, Computation of Tax for Children Under Age 14 Who Have Investment Income of More Than $1,000. See Form N-615 and instructions for more information. If line 15 is $100,000 or more you CAN-

NOT file Form N-13. Instead, you must file Form N-11 or N-12 and use the Tax Rate Schedules to figure your tax.

Be sure you use the correct column in the Hawaii Tax Table. After you have found the correct tax, enter that amount on line 16.

13 Line 17 Energy Conservation Tax Credit

Each resident taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for 2000 may claim a tax credit against his or her individual income tax liability for a solar or wind energy system, heat pump, or ice storage system installed and placed in service in 2000. Additions to existing systems (e.g., additional solar energy panels) and systems for a second home qualify for this credit. The cost of repairs to existing systems (e.g., replacing solar energy panels), however, do not qualify for this credit. The tax credit shall apply only to the actual cost of the solar or wind energy system, heat pump, or ice storage system, including accessories and installation, and shall not include the cost of consumer incentive premiums unrelated to the operation of the system or offered with the sale of the system or heat pump (such as "free gifts", offers to pay electricity bills, or rebates).

The tax credit may be claimed for the following energy conservation systems installed and placed in service after 12/31/89 (12/31/90 for ice storage systems), but before 7/1/2003:

Type of Energy Conservation System	Tax Credit Rate
1. Wind energy systems	20% of the actual cost of the system.
2. Solar energy systems
a. New and existing single family residential buildings	The lesser of 35% of the actual cost of the system or $1,750.
b. New and existing Multi-unit buildings used primarily for residential purposes.	Per building unit: The lesser of 35% of each unit's actual cost of the system or $350.
c. New and existing hotel, commercial and industrial facilities.	35% of the actual cost of the system.
3. Heat pumps
a. New and existing single family residential buildings	The lesser of 20% of the actual cost of the system or $400.
b. New and existing Multi-unit buildings used primarily for residential purposes.	Per building unit: The lesser of 20% of each unit's actual cost of the system or $200.
c. New and existing hotel, commercial and industrial facilities.	20% of the actual cost of the system.
4. Ice storage systems	50% of the actual cost of the system.

In the event that tax credits claimed exceed the amount of the income tax payments due, the excess of credits may be carried over to subsequent years until used up.

To determine this tax credit, use Form N-157 and attach the form to individual income tax return Form N-13, and enter on page 2, line 17, the amount of the credit claimed.

For more information see Form N-157.

14 Line 19a Total Hawaii Income Tax Withheld

Enter the amount of Hawaii income tax withheld as shown on your HW-2 form. If you have more than one HW-2 form, add the amounts of Hawaii income tax withheld. If you are filing a joint return, add the amounts of Hawaii income tax withheld for you and your spouse.

Also include on this line, Hawaii income tax withheld on unemployment compensation as shown on your federal Form 1099-G.

15 Line 19b Amount Paid With Extension(s)

If you filed Form N-101A (or federal Form 4868) and/or N-101B (or federal Form 2688) to get an extension of time to file Form N-13, enter the amount you paid on this line.

Other Credits

IMPORTANT!! The amount of any credit claimed on lines 19c through 19f which total more than your tax liability will be refunded to you. It is very important that you carefully read the following instructions for each of these credits to ensure that you properly claim all the credits for which you are entitled.

16 Line 19c Low-Income Refundable Tax Credit

If your Hawaii adjusted gross income was $20,000 or less, you may qualify for this credit. See the instructions for Schedule X, Part I, on page 13. Figure the credit on Schedule X, Part I, and enter the amount of the credit here.

Note: Do not claim this credit if you are being claimed or eligible to be claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer for federal or Hawaii income tax purposes.

Deadline for claiming this credit. Claims for this credit, including any amended claims, must be filed on or before December 31, 2001.

17 Line 19d Credit for Low-Income Household Renters

If you occupy and pay rent for real property within the State as your residence, your Hawaii adjusted gross income was less than $30,000, and the rent you paid during 2000 was more than $1,000, you may qualify for this credit. To see if you qualify, see the instructions for Schedule X, Part II, on page 14. If you qualify, figure the credit on Schedule X, Part II, and enter the amount of the credit here.

Note: Do not claim this credit if you are being claimed or eligible to be claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer for federal or Hawaii income tax purposes.

Deadline for claiming this credit. Claims for this credit, including any amended claims, must be filed on or before December 31, 2001.

18 Line 19e Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses

Certain payments made for child and dependent care (including payments made to the State of Hawaii A+ Program) may be claimed as a credit against your tax due. To see if you qualify, see the instructions for Schedule X, Part III, on page 15. If you qualify, figure the credit on Schedule X, Part III, and enter the amount of the credit here.

Note: Do not claim this credit if you are being claimed or eligible to be claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer for federal or Hawaii income tax purposes.

19 Line 19f Credit for Child Passenger Restraint System

Each resident taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for the taxable year may claim a tax credit for 2000 for the purchase of one or more new child passenger restraint systems which can be shown to be in substantial conformity with specifications for such restraint systems set forth by the federal motor vehicle safety standards which were in effect at the time of such purchase.

Note: This credit is $25 per return regardless of the cost or the number of restraint systems purchased.

To Claim this Credit. Enter $25 in line 19f, and attach a copy of the sales invoice, which states the type of child restraint system purchased, to your return.

1) If the invoice doesn't have your name on it, you must attach a statement saying that you and nobody else is claiming the credit for the purchase described in the invoice.

2) If the invoice has somebody else's name on it, you must attach an explanation.

Your claim for this credit may be rejected if the invoice is not attached, or if 1) or 2) applies but no statement or explanation is attached.

Deadline for claiming this credit. Claims for the tax credit, including any amended claims thereof, must be filed on or before December 31, 2001.

20 Line 21 Amount Refunded to You

If line 20 is larger than line 18, subtract line 18 from line 20 and show the difference on line 21. This is the amount that will be refunded to you. This line must be completed for you to receive a refund.

If the refund is large, you should see your payroll office about reducing the amount of tax that is withheld from your wages.

21 Line 22 Amount You Owe

If line 18 is larger than line 20, subtract line 20 from line 18 and show the difference on line 22. This is the balance you still owe. Use Form N-200V, Individual Income Tax Payment Voucher, to send your payment to the Department of Taxation.

Note: If you include penalty and/or interest for the late filing of your return with your payment, identify and enter these amounts on a separate sheet of paper and attach to Form N-13. Do not include the penalty and/or interest amounts for the late filing of your return in the Amount You Owe on line 22 of Form N-13.

Note: If you cannot pay the full amount you owe, you can ask to enter a payment agreement by attaching a letter requesting for a payment agreement, with the following information, to the front of your tax return: (1) Your name (as stated on the tax return), (2) Your social security number, (3) Type of tax (individual income tax), and (4) Period or year (calendar year 2000). You should, however, still send in payments until you are notified by the Department.

22 Line 23 Estimated Tax Penalty

See the instructions for Penalties and Interest on page 13 and Form N-210 to see if you owe a penalty for the underpayment of estimated taxes.

If you owe a penalty, enter the penalty amount on Form N-13, line 23. Add the penalty amount to any tax due and enter the total on line 22. If you have an overpayment, subtract the penalty amount from the overpayment you show on line 21. However, if your overpayment is less than the penalty amount, enter the difference as a balance due on line 22.

Check the box at line 23 if Form N-210 is attached.

23 Line 24 2001 Forms

If your Form N-13 is prepared by someone else, or if you do not need Hawaii income tax forms mailed to you next year, check the box at line 24, and you will receive a pre-printed label only.

24 Completing Your Return Sign and Date Your Return

Form N-13 is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. If you are unable to sign the return (due to disease or injury, etc.), you can appoint an agent to sign your return. A return signed by an agent must have a power of attorney attached that authorizes the agent to sign for you. You can use Form N-848, Power of Attorney.

Be sure to date your return. If you have someone prepare your return, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return.

Attach a copy of your HW-2 or federal Forms W-2 and 1099-G (unemployment compensation) to your return.

Joint Return. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return. If your spouse cannot sign because of disease or injury and tells you to sign, you can sign your spouse's name in the proper space on the return followed by the words "By (your name), Husband (or Wife)." Be sure to also sign in the space provided for your signature. Attach a dated statement, signed by you, to the return. The statement should include the form number of the return you are filing, the tax year, and the reason your spouse cannot sign, and that your spouse has agreed to your signing for him or her.

If you are the guardian of your spouse who is mentally incompetent, you can sign the return for your spouse as guardian.

If your spouse is unable to sign the return because he or she is serving in a combat zone, and you do not have a power of attorney or other statement, you can sign for your spouse. Attach a signed statement to your return that explains that your spouse is serving in a combat zone.

If your spouse cannot sign the joint return for any other reason, you can sign for your spouse only if you are given a valid power of attorney. Attach the power of attorney to your tax return.

If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, see Death of Taxpayer on page 7.

Child's return. If your child cannot sign the return, sign your child's name in the space provided. Then, add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Did You Have Someone Else Prepare Your Return?

Note: You have the option of checking the "Yes" or "No" box in the signature area of your tax return to indicate whether you are authorizing the Department of Taxation to discuss your tax return with your paid preparer. If you check the "Yes" box on your tax return, and enter the name of your individual paid preparer, you are authorizing the Department to call your paid preparer to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of your tax return.

If you fill in your own return, the Paid Preparer's Information space under your signature should remain blank. If someone prepares your return and does not charge you, that person should not sign your return.

Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must sign it and fill in the other blanks in the Paid Preparer's Information area of your return. The preparer may furnish his or her alternative identifying number for income tax return preparers (PTIN) instead of his or her social security number.

If you have questions about whether a preparer is required to sign your return, please contact your taxation district office.

The preparer required to sign your return MUST complete the required preparer information and:

- Sign it, by hand, in the space provided for the preparer's signature. (Signature stamps or labels are not acceptable.)
- Give you a copy of your return in addition to the copy to be filed with your taxation district office.

Reminders

Processing of Your Tax Return

In general, refunds due to you are issued within 8 weeks from the date your return is filed with the Department of Taxation. However, it may take additional time if you filed your return close to the April 20 filing deadline, if errors were made in completing your return, or you moved and did not change your address in writing with the district tax office with which you filed your return.

Please do not contact the Department regarding the status of your tax return until at least 4 weeks have passed if you filed your tax return in January or February, or until at least 6 weeks have passed if you filed your tax return in March or April.

Penalties and Interest

a. Late Filing of Return. The law provides a penalty of 5% of the tax due for each month, or part of a month, the return is late (maximum 25%) unless you can show reasonable cause for the delay. If you file a return late, attach a full explanation to your return.

b. Extensions. If you are unable to file your Hawaii tax return by April 20, 2001, file Form N-101A, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Hawaii Individual Income Tax Return, to receive an automatic four month extension. Federal Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, may be used in lieu of Form N-101A. You should estimate the amount of tax you think will be due, and pay any tax you think you will owe. If, after April 20, you find that your estimate of the tax due was too low, you should pay the additional tax as soon as possible to avoid further accumulation of penalties and interest. Pay any estimated additional tax with another Form N-101A or federal Form 4868.

c. Interest. Interest will be charged on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. The interest rate for not paying tax when due is 2/3 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it remains unpaid.

d. Failure to pay tax after filing timely returns. If a return is timely filed and the tax due is not completely paid within 60 days of the due date of the return, an amount up to 20% of the unpaid tax will be added to the tax due.

e. Underpayment of estimated taxes. You may be subject to a penalty for not paying enough estimated tax if your tax payments, including withholding, do not total the smallest of:

- 1) 90% (66 2/3% for farmers and fishermen) of the 2000 tax liability;
- 2) 100% of the tax shown on the 1999 return (110% of that amount if the individual's adjusted gross income on that return is more than $150,000, and less than 2/3 of gross income for 1999 or 2000 is from farming or fishing); or
- 3) 90% of the tax figured by annualizing the taxable income.

For more information, see Form N-210, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals and Fiduciaries.

Change of Address

If your mailing address changes after you file your return, you must notify the Department in writing of the change in addition to notifying the post office serving your former address. Failure to do so may prevent any refund due to you from being delivered (the postal service is not permitted to forward your State refund check), and delay important notices or correspondence to you regarding your return. Be sure to include your name(s) and social security number(s) as printed on your return in any correspondence with the Department.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep records of income and credits appearing on your tax return until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 3 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. Also keep copies of your filed tax returns as part of your records. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your own home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property.

Amended Return

If you file your income tax return and later become aware of any changes you must make to income, deductions, or credits, you may file an amended return on Form N-13 to change the Form N-13 you already filed. Use the Form N-13 for the year you are amending. (You cannot file a 1999 amended return on a 2000 Form N-13.) Write the word "AMENDED" in the upper left hand corner of the return, and fill in the return with all of the correct information.

If you paid additional tax with your original return, include that amount in the total on line 20 of the amended Form N-13 and write "Additional tax paid with original return" on the dotted line to the left of the total. If you claimed a refund on your original return, subtract that amount from the amended Form N-13, line 20. If Form N-13, line 20 was blank on your original return, show the refund amount in parentheses.

You can get prior year forms from your local district tax office.

You may also file an amended return on Form N-188X, Amended Individual Income Tax Return. However, the filing of an amended return on Form

N-13 may result in a faster processing of your amended return.

Change In Federal Taxable Income

In general, a change to your federal return, whether it is made by you or by the Internal Revenue Service, must be reported to the State of Hawaii.

1) Section 235-101(b), HRS, requires a report to the Director of Taxation if the amount of IRC taxable income is changed, corrected, adjusted or recomputed as stated in (3).

2) This report must be made:

- a) Within 90 days after a change, correction, adjustment or recomputation is finally determined.
- b) Within 90 days after an amended return is filed.

3) A report within the time set out in (2) is required if:

- a) The amount of taxable income as returned to the United States is changed, corrected or adjusted by an officer of the United States or other competent authority.
- b) A change in taxable income results from a renegotiation of a contract with the United States or a subcontract thereunder.
- c) A recomputation of the income tax imposed by the United States under the Internal Revenue Code results from any cause.
- d) An amended income tax return is made to the United States.

4) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency or the determination of any refund attributable to the report shall not expire before the expiration of one year from the date the Department is notified by the taxpayer or the Internal Revenue Service, whichever is earlier, of such a report in writing. Before the expiration of this one-year period, the Department and the taxpayer may agree in writing to the extension of this period. The period so agreed upon may be further extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Instructions for Schedule X—Tax Credits

Purpose

Use Schedule X to claim the low-income refundable tax credit, credit for low-income household renters, and the credit for child and dependent care expenses. Even if you have no taxable income, you should complete and file Schedule X to claim these credits so they can be refunded to you.

Warning: The low-income refundable tax credit and credit for low-income household renters MUST be claimed on or before the end of the twelfth month following the end of the taxable year. If you do not claim these credits within that period, the credits are waived and cannot be claimed later, even on an amended return.

Part I

Low-Income Refundable Tax Credit

Each resident taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for the taxable year, including those who have no income or no income taxable under chapter 235, HRS, may claim this credit provided that the taxpayer is not eligible to be claimed as a dependent for federal or State income tax purposes by another taxpayer.

Qualified Exemptions

The low-income refundable tax credit may be claimed for each resident individual who:

- Was a resident of Hawaii and was physically present in Hawaii for more than nine months during the taxable year;
- Is not claimed and is not eligible to be claimed as a dependent by any taxpayer for federal or Hawaii individual income tax purposes; and
- Was not confined in jail, prison, or a youth correctional facility for the full taxable year.

For Whom the Credit May Be Claimed

A taxpayer filing Form N-11, N-12, N-13, or N-15 may claim the credit for any of the following people who are "qualified exemptions" as defined on this page:

- The taxpayer's self;
- The taxpayer's spouse, if the spouse is filing jointly with the taxpayer;
- The taxpayer's dependents; and
- The taxpayer's minor children receiving support from the Department of Human Services of the State, social security survivor benefits, and the like.

Birth or Death of a Qualified Exemption

- A person who dies during the year may be a qualified exemption so long as the person was alive and physically present within the State for nine months. If a person who was continuously living in Hawaii died after September 30, 2000, that person could still be a qualified exemption.
- A child who is born during 2000 could be a qualified exemption if the mother was physically present in the State while pregnant with the child and the total days of gestation and life after birth total more than nine months during the taxable year.

Line 1

Adjusted Gross Income

If the adjusted gross income shown on your return (Form N-13, line 11) is over $20,000, stop here; you cannot take this credit. However, you may claim the credit for a minor child receiving support from the Department of Human Services, etc.

Married filing separately. If you are married filing separately, you must add your spouse's adjusted gross income to your own. If you are married filing separately and your spouse is a nonresident, you need to determine your spouse's adjusted gross income from all sources, within and outside of Hawaii, and add that amount to your own adjusted gross income. If the total is over $20,000, you cannot claim this credit.

Line 2

Qualified Exemptions

On line 2, enter the names of all qualified exemptions. Start with yourself, enter your spouse's name if you are filing a joint return, and list your dependent children. List only persons who are qualified exemptions.

If married filing separately, only one spouse may claim the dependents.

Enter the number of qualified persons on line 2.

Line 3

Minor Children Receiving Public Support

On line 3, list your minor children who are also qualified exemptions, and who receive more than half of their support from the Department of Human Services, Social Security benefits, and other government payments. If you are married filing separately, only one spouse may claim each child. Enter the number of children here, and on the space provided beside Form N-13, line 19c.

Line 5

If you are married filing separately and your spouse is a nonresident, you need to determine your spouse's adjusted gross income from all sources, within and outside of Hawaii.

Line 10

Amount of the Credit

Add lines 8 and 9. Enter this amount on Form N-13, line 19c.

Deadline for claiming this credit. Claims for this credit, including any amended claims, must be filed on or before the end of the twelfth month after the close of your taxable year.

Part II

Credit for Low-Income Household Renters

Each resident taxpayer who occupies and pays rent for real property within the State as his or her residence and who files an individual income tax return for the taxable year, including those who have no income or no income taxable under chapter 235, HRS, may claim a tax credit of $50 per qualified exemption, including the additional exemption for taxpayers age 65 or over, provided the following four conditions are met:

- The taxpayer is not eligible to be claimed as a dependent for federal or State income tax purposes by another taxpayer;
- The taxpayer has adjusted gross income of less than $30,000;
- The taxpayer has paid more than $1,000 in rent during the taxable year; and
- The rented property is NOT partly or wholly exempt from real property tax.

Note: Minor children receiving more than half of their support from the State Department of Human Services, Social Security benefits, and the like, are NOT considered qualified exemptions for purposes of claiming this credit. A child listed in line 3 of Part I does not count toward this credit.

A "residence" is defined as the dwelling place that constitutes the principal residence of the taxpayer or his or her immediate family in this State.

"Rent" means the amount paid in cash in any taxable year for the occupancy of a residence. Rent does not include:

- Charges for utilities, parking stalls, storage of goods, yard services, furniture, furnishings, and the like;
- Rental claimed as a deduction from gross income or adjusted gross income for income tax purposes;
- Ground rental paid for use of land only; and
- Rental allowances or rental subsidies received (i.e. housing allowance received from the armed forces or the Hawaii Housing Authority).

Line 1

Adjusted Gross Income

If the adjusted gross income shown on your return (Form N-13, line 11) is more than $30,000, stop here; you cannot take this credit.

Married filing separately. If you are married filing separately, you must add your spouse's adjusted gross income to your own. If you are married filing separately and your spouse is a nonresident, you need to determine your spouse's adjusted gross income from all sources, within and outside of Hawaii and add that amount to your own adjusted gross income. If the total is more than $30,000, you cannot claim this credit.

Line 2

Resident for More Than Nine Months

If you are a part-year resident who has been in Hawaii for 9 months or less in 2000, stop here; you cannot take this credit.

Line 3

Dependent of Another Taxpayer

If you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return, whether or not that person claims you, stop here; you cannot take this credit.

Line 4

Your Addresses

List your most recent address. Fill in all of the required information. If you lived in more than one location during 2000, attach a separate sheet listing the same information for the other locations.

Do not list any location that was partly or wholly exempt from real property tax, such as:

- County or State low-income housing projects;
- Military housing; or
- Dormitories in schools or other nonprofit organizations.

Line 5

Rent You Paid

Enter the total amount of rent you paid during 2000 to all of the locations listed on line 4. If you are sharing or were sharing the rent with somebody else, list only your share of the rent here.

Line 6

Exclusions

Enter that portion of the amount on line 5 which:

- Is for ground rent (for example, lease rent that the landlord has to pay), utilities, goods, or services;
- You claimed as a deduction anywhere on your tax return; or
- You were reimbursed, through a rental allowance or rental subsidy from any source.

Line 7

Line 5 minus line 6. If this amount is less than $1,000, stop here; you cannot take this credit.

Line 8

Qualified Exemptions

Enter the number from the following worksheet.

- a Enter the number from Schedule X, Part I, line 2. If you did not claim the low-income refundable tax credit, complete Part I, line 2, and enter amount here. _____
- b Enter the number of persons who would have been listed in Part I, line 2 as qualified exemptions except that they were in prison, a youth correctional facility, or jail for the entire taxable year. _____
- c If you are a qualified exemption and you are age 65 or over, enter 1. Otherwise, enter 0. _____
- d If you are married and filing a joint return or married and filing separately where your spouse is not filing a Hawaii return, had no income, and was not the dependent of someone else; and your spouse is a qualified exemption; and your spouse is age 65 or over; enter 1. Otherwise, enter 0. _____
- e Add lines a through d. Enter the result here and on line 8 of Schedule X, Part II. _____

Line 9

Amount of the Credit

Line 8 times $50. Enter this amount on Form N-13, line 19d.

Deadline for claiming this credit. Claims for this credit, including any amended claims, must be filed on or before the end of the twelfth month after the close of your taxable year.

Part III

Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses

If you maintain a household that included a child under age 13 or a dependent or spouse incapable of self-care, you may be allowed this credit for expenses you paid during the taxable year to care for your dependent so you could work.

If you filed federal Form 2441 or Form 1040A, Schedule 2

If you filed either federal form, you are probably eligible for the Hawaii credit as well. Instead of filling out all of Part III, follow these steps:

- Fill in Section A, Care Provider Information. Be sure to include the care providers' general excise tax license numbers in column (d).
- In Section B, line 2, enter the amount from line 10 of Form 2441 or Schedule 2. Then go to Section B, line 11.
- In Section B, line 11, enter the amount from line 19 of Form 2441 or Schedule 2.

Include this amount on the wages line (line 7) of Form N-13, and write "DCB" on the dotted line next to line 7.

Then go to Section C, line 20.

- In Section C, line 20, enter the amount from line 6 of Form 2441 or Schedule 2.
- Then go to Section C, lines 21, 22, and 23, to figure your credit.
- Be sure to complete line 16 (information on the qualifying person).

Who May Claim the Credit

If you are a resident taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for a taxable year, you are not claimed or eligible to be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal or Hawaii income tax return, and you maintain a household which includes one or more qualifying persons (defined below), you may be allowed a credit against your income tax. The credit ranges from 15% to 25% of employment-related expenses (up to certain limitations) PAID during the taxable year in order to enable you to work either full or part time for an employer or as a self-employed individual.

Maintaining a Household

You will be treated as maintaining a household for any period only if you furnish over half the cost of maintaining the household for that period. If you are married during that time, you and your spouse must provide over half the maintenance cost for the period.

The expenses of maintaining a household include property taxes, mortgage interest, rent, utility charges, upkeep and repairs, property insurance, and food consumed on the premises. They do not include the cost of clothing, education, medical treatment, vacations, life insurance, and transportation.

Qualifying Person

A qualifying person is any one of the following persons:

- a. Any person under age 13 whom you claim as a dependent (but see special rule (4) on this page, Children of Divorced or Separated Parents).
- b. Your disabled spouse who is mentally or physically unable to care for himself or herself.
- c. Any disabled person who is mentally or physically unable to care for himself or herself and whom you claim as a dependent, or could claim as a dependent except that he or she had income of $2,800 or more.

Employment-related Expenses

Employment-related expenses are those paid for the following, but only if paid to enable you to be gainfully employed:

(1) Expenses for Household Services. Expenses will be considered for household services in your home if they are for the ordinary and usual services necessary for the operation of the home, and bear some relationship to the qualifying person. For example, payment for services of a domestic maid or cook ordinarily will be considered expenses for household services if performed at least partially for the benefit of the qualifying person.

(2) Expenses for the Care of a qualifying person. Expenses will be considered for the care of one or more qualifying persons if their main purpose was to assure that individual's well-being and protection. Payments for food, clothing, or education are not such expenses. However, if the care provided includes expenses that cannot be separated, the full amount paid will be considered for the qualifying person's care. Thus, the full amount paid to a nursery school will be considered for the care of a child even though the school also furnishes lunch. Educational expenses for a child in the first or higher-grade level are not expenses for the child's care.

You may NOT include any amount paid for services outside your household at a camp where the qualifying person stays overnight.

Do not include services outside your household as employment-related expenses for your spouse or a dependent age 13 or older. However, services outside your household are employment-related expenses for a dependent who has not reached his or her 13th birthday or for an individual who regularly spends at least eight hours each day in your household.

You may include expenses incurred for qualified dependent care centers as employment-related expenses. The dependent care center must comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations of Hawaii if the center is located within Hawaii. If the center is located outside Hawaii, the center must comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations of the state or country in which the center is located. Furthermore, these centers must provide care for more than six individuals (other than individuals who reside at the center), and must receive a fee, payment, or grant providing services for any of the individuals (regardless of whether such center is operated for profit).

Note: Payments made to the State of Hawaii A+ Program qualify for the credit.

Medical Expenses

Some dependent care expenses may qualify as medical expenses. If you cannot use all the medical expenses to qualify for this credit because of the dollar limit or earned income limit (explained later), you can take the rest of these expenses as an itemized deduction for medical expenses. But if you deduct the medical expenses first as an itemized deduction, you cannot use any part of these expenses on Schedule X.

Special Rules

(1) Married Couples Must File Joint Returns. If you are married at the end of the taxable year, the credit for employment-related expenses is allowable only if you and your spouse file a joint return for the taxable year.

(2) Marital Status. If you are legally separated from your spouse under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, you are not considered married.

(3) Certain Married Individuals Living Apart and Filing Separate Returns. If during the last 6 months of the taxable year your spouse was not a member of your household and you (a) maintained a household which was for more than one-half of the taxable year the principal place of abode of a qualifying person, and (b) furnished over half of the cost of maintaining such household during the taxable year, then you are not considered married for purposes of the credit or the exclusion.

(4) Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. If you were divorced, legally separated, or lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2000, you may be able to claim the credit even if your child is not your dependent. If your child is not your dependent, he or she is a qualifying person if all five of the following apply:

1. You had custody of the child for the longer period during the year;
2. The child received over half of his or her support from one or both of the parents;
3. The child was in the custody of one or both of the parents over half of the year;
4. The child was under age 13, or was physically or mentally unable to care for himself or herself; and
5. The child is not your dependent because:
 - a. As the custodial parent, you signed federal Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Child of Divorced or Separated Parents, or a similar statement, agreeing not to claim the child's exemption for 2000; or
 - b. You were divorced or separated before 1985 and your divorce decree or written agreement states that the other parent can claim the child's exemption, and the other parent provides at least $600 in child support during the year.

Note: This rule does not apply if your decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to specify that the other parent cannot claim the child's exemption.

(5) Payments to a Related Individual. You can count work-related expenses you pay to relatives who are not your dependents, even if they live in your home. However, do not count any amounts you pay to:

1. A dependent for whom you (or your spouse if you are married) can claim an exemption, or
2. Your child who is under age 19 at the end of the year, even if he or she is not your dependent.

Line 1

Care Providers

Complete columns (a) through (e) for each person or organization that provided the care. If you do not give the information asked for in each column, or if the information you give is not correct, your credit and, if applicable, the exclusion of employer-provided dependent care benefits may be disallowed.

You can use Form HW-16, "Dependent Care Provider's Identification and Certification", to get the correct information from the care provider. (This form is available at your district tax office.) If the provider does not comply with your request to certify the information, complete the entries you can, such as the provider's name and address. Write "See attached" in the columns for which you do not have the provider's certification of information. Attach a statement that you requested the information from the care provider, but the provider did not comply with your request. You must keep records to show that you exercised due diligence in attempting to provide the required information. For more details, including what is considered "due diligence," see federal Publication 503.

Columns (a) and (b). Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a), write "See W-2" in column (b), and leave columns (c) through (e) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (e).

Column (c). If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her social security number (SSN). If the individual is an alien and was issued an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) by the IRS, enter the ITIN. For other than an individual, enter provider's federal employer identification number (FEIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, write "Tax-Exempt" in column (c).

Column (d). Enter the care provider's general excise tax license number. If the provider is a tax-exempt charitable organization (IRC section 501(c)(3)), enter "Tax-Exempt".

Column (e). Enter the total amount you actually paid during the taxable year to the care provider. Also include amounts your employer paid on your behalf to a third party. It does not matter when the expenses were incurred. Do not reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Line 2

Employer-Paid Dependent Care Benefits

If you received dependent care benefits from an employer (you have a federal or Hawaii W-2 form that has an amount in Box 10), and:

- You are claiming the federal credit, see If you filed federal Form 2441 or Form 1040A, Schedule 2 on page 15.

- You filled out federal Form 2441 or Form 1040A, Schedule 2, but it said you cannot take the credit, then you cannot take the Hawaii credit either.
- You are not filing a federal return, then enter the amount shown in Box 10 of your W-2 form(s).

Line 3

Amount Forfeited

If you participated in an employee plan in which the amount you contributed to an employer-paid dependent care benefit plan was deducted from your income, and you did not receive the full benefit from this plan, you may be entitled to deduct the amount forfeited on this line. (See your employer for the forfeited amount you are allowed to deduct.)

Line 7

Your Earned Income

In general, earned income is wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation. It also includes net earnings from self-employment. For more information, see the instructions to lines 18 and 19 on this page.

Line 8

Spouse's Earned Income

If your filing status is Married Filing Jointly, enter your spouse's earned income on this line.

If your filing status is Married Filing Separately, see Certain Married Individuals Living Apart and Filing Separate Returns earlier. If you are considered unmarried under that rule, enter your earned income (from line 7) on this line; on line 10, enter the smaller of the amount from line 9 or $5,000. If you are not considered unmarried under that rule, enter your spouse's earned income on line 8.

If your spouse was a student or disabled in 2000, see Spouse Who Is a Full-time Student or Is Disabled on this page. On line 10, enter the smaller of the amount from line 9 or $2,500.

All other taxpayers should enter the amount on line 7.

Line 11

Taxable Benefits

Line 4 minus line 10. Also, include this amount on line 7 of Form N-13. On the corresponding dotted line write "DCB".

Line 16

Qualifying Person(s)

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each qualifying person. If you have more than two qualifying persons, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and social security number on the statement. Also, write "See attached" on the dotted line next to line 17.

Column (a). Enter each qualifying person's name.

Column (b). Enter the qualifying person's relationship to you.

Column (c). Enter the qualifying person's social security number.

Column (d). Enter the qualified expenses you incurred and paid in 2000 for the person listed in column (a). Do not include in column (d) qualified expenses:

- You incurred in 2000 but did not pay until 2001. You may be able to use these expenses to increase your 2001 credit.

- You incurred in 1999 but did not pay until 2000. Instead, see the instructions for line 23 below.
- You prepaid in 2000 for care to be provided in 2001. These expenses may only be used to figure your 2001 credit.

Lines 18 and 19

Earned Income Limit

The amount of your qualified expenses cannot be more than your earned income or, if married filing a joint return, the smaller of your earned income or your spouse's earned income.

In general, earned income is wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation. It also includes net earnings from self-employment.

Unmarried taxpayers. If you are unmarried at the end of 2000 or are treated as being unmarried at the end of the year, enter your earned income on line 18.

Married Taxpayers. If you are married filing a joint return, figure each spouse's earned income separately and disregard community property laws. Enter your earned income on line 18 and your spouse's earned income on line 19.

Spouse Who Is a Full-time Student or Is Disabled. If your spouse was a full-time student or was mentally or physically unable to care for himself or herself, figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis to determine your spouse's earned income for the year. For each month that your spouse was disabled or a full-time student, your spouse is considered to have earned income of not less than $200 a month ($400 a month if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 2000). But if your spouse also worked during any month and earned more than that amount, use his or her actual earned income.

For any month that your spouse was not disabled or a full-time student, use your spouse's actual earned income if your spouse worked during the month.

If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were full-time students and did not work, you cannot use any amount paid that month to figure the credit. The same applies to a couple who did not work because neither was capable of self-care.

A full-time student is one who was enrolled in a school for the number of hours or classes that is considered full time. The student must have been enrolled at least 5 months during 2000.

Self-employment income. You must reduce your earned income by any loss from self-employment. If you only have a loss from self-employment, or your loss is more than your other earned income, you cannot take the credit.

Line 23

Amount of the Credit

If you had qualified expenses for 1999 that you did not pay until 2000, you may be able to increase the amount of credit you can take in 2000. To do this, multiply the 1999 expenses you paid in 2000 by the applicable percentage from the table on line 22 that applies to your 1999 adjusted gross income. Your 1999 expenses must be within the 1999 limits. Attach a computation showing how you figured the increase. If you can take a credit for your 1999 expenses, write "PYE" and the amount of the credit on the dotted line next to line 23. Enter the total amount of the credit on line 23. Also enter this amount on Form N-13, line 19e.

STATE OF HAWAII—DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION
HAWAII TAXPAYER BILL OF RIGHTS

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

This publication explains some of your most important rights as a taxpayer.

Hawaii taxpayers have many rights. Some are based on laws, and others are based on our commitment to administer Hawaii's tax laws in a fair and equitable manner. The Hawaii Taxpayer Bill of Rights compiles these rights for your easy reference.

Taxpayer rights are at the heart of good tax administration — a pledge that the tax laws will be administered with fairness, uniformity, courtesy, and common sense. In our commitment to this pledge, we invite your suggestions for improving the services provided by the Department of Taxation.

HAWAII TAXPAYER BILL OF RIGHTS

I. Protection of Taxpayer Rights

Taxpayers are entitled to be informed about their rights and responsibilities and to be assured that their rights as taxpayers will be protected throughout their contact with the Department of Taxation.

II. Tax Information

Taxpayers have a right to tax information written in plain language.

Taxpayers have a right to examine their own tax records, audit files, and collection files.

Taxpayers have a right to request copies of their own tax returns and return information, if available, subject to copying fees.

Taxpayers have a right to obtain explanations regarding billings and assessments.

III. Professional and Courteous Service

Taxpayers have a right to prompt, courteous, and accurate responses to all questions and requests for tax assistance.

Taxpayers have a right to be assured that no civil service employee of the Department of Taxation will be paid, promoted, or in any way rewarded based on the amount of assessments made or taxes collected.

Taxpayers have a right to be free from harassment and inappropriate contact by Department of Taxation personnel in matters relating to the collection of delinquent taxes and during the course of audits.

IV. Privacy and Confidentiality

Taxpayers have a right to be assured that their dealings with the Department of Taxation will be kept confidential.

Taxpayers have a right to be assured that their tax returns and tax return information will not be disclosed, except as provided by law.

V. Time Limitations

Taxpayers are entitled to seek a refund if they have overpaid their taxes. A claim for refund must be filed within the applicable statute of limitations.

The Department of Taxation may assess a taxpayer additional taxes if the assessment is made within the applicable statute of limitations. There is no time limit on the assessment of taxes in the case of a false or fraudulent return or failure to file a return.

Taxpayers have a right to extend the period of limitations for the assessment or refund of taxes by signing a written agreement with the Department of Taxation.

If the Department of Taxation is notified by the Internal Revenue Service or a taxpayer of any changes, corrections, or adjustments to the taxpayer's Federal tax return, the statute of limitations is automatically extended.

VI. Audits and Assessments

Taxpayers have a right to a Proposed Notice of Assessment except in the case of a jeopardy assessment. A Proposed Notice of Assessment is mailed to the taxpayer's last known address and: (1) explains the basis for the assessment of taxes, penalties, and interest; (2) informs taxpayers of their right to request clarification or to object to the tax assessment within thirty days from the date the Proposed Notice of Assessment was mailed; and (3) informs taxpayers that the proposed tax assessment will become final after the expiration of thirty days from the mailing of the Proposed Notice of Assessment.

Taxpayers have a right to a Final Notice of Assessment, issued after the expiration of thirty days from the mailing of the Proposed Notice of Assessment, that provides the basis for the tax assessment, and informs the taxpayer of the procedures for appealing the assessment.

Taxpayers have a right to request a meeting with the auditor or collector, their supervisor, or senior management to discuss a Proposed or Final Notice of Assessment if they do not agree with the tax assessment.

Taxpayers have a right to request that the Department of Taxation consider a closing agreement to reduce a Proposed or Final Notice of Assessment. Closing agreements are final.

VII. Tax Appeals/Payment Under Protest

Taxpayers have a right to information regarding procedures for appealing a tax assessment.

Tax Appeals. Taxpayers have a right to appeal an assessment, either to the board of review or to the tax appeal court. The appeal must be filed within 30 days from the date the Final Notice of Assessment was mailed. If the appeal is filed with the board of review, the decision of the board may be appealed within 30 days to the tax appeal court. If the appeal is filed with the tax appeal court, the decision of the tax appeal court may be appealed within 30 days to the Hawaii Supreme Court.

Taxpayers who appeal an assessment directly to the tax appeal court must pay the assessment prior to appealing. Taxpayers who appeal an assessment to a board of review do not have to pay the tax assessed prior to appealing. However, the assessed tax must be paid together with interest when the decision by a board is appealed by the taxpayer or the decision by the board in favor of the Department of Taxation is not appealed. In addition, a taxpayer who prevails before the board of review does not have to pay the assessed tax prior to an appeal by the Department of Taxation to the tax appeal court. Similarly, a taxpayer who prevails before the board of review and the tax appeal court does not have to pay the assessed tax prior to an appeal by the Department of Taxation to the Hawaii Supreme Court.

The tax appeal court may allow an individual taxpayer to appeal an income tax assessment without prior payment of the tax where the total tax liability does not exceed $50,000 and the taxpayer shows that the payment of the tax would cause irreparable harm. Similarly, a circuit court may allow a taxpayer to appeal a general excise tax assessment without prior payment of the tax if the taxpayer shows that the payment of the tax would cause irreparable harm.

Payment Under Protest. In lieu of filing an appeal or if an appeal is not filed with the board of review or tax appeal court within 30 days from the date the Final Notice of Assessment was mailed, the taxpayer may pay the disputed tax assessment under written protest and seek to recover the taxes by filing an action in tax appeal court within 30 days from the date of payment.

VIII. Representation

Taxpayers have a right to represent themselves or have another person accompany or represent them (with proper written authorization) when dealing with the Department of Taxation on any tax matter, including audits, collections, and appeals.

IX. Taxpayer Advocate

Taxpayers have a right to seek the assistance of our Taxpayer Advocate to resolve any tax-related problem after all other means for resolving the problem have been exhausted, or if they feel that their rights as a taxpayer have been abridged, except in the case of a criminal tax investigation.

X. Installment Agreements, Waivers, and Compromises

Installment Agreements. Taxpayers have a right to request that the Department of Taxation consider an installment payment agreement to allow taxpayers to pay their delinquent taxes over time. The Department of Taxation will evaluate a request for an installment payment agreement based on the financial condition of the taxpayer. No collection action shall be taken on any outstanding tax liability that is subject to an installment payment agreement in good standing. Interest will be assessed on the outstanding tax liability until it is paid in full.

Waiver of Penalties and Interest. Taxpayers have a right to request that the Department of Taxation waive penalties and interest added to any tax that is delinquent for not more than ninety days if the taxpayer can show that failure to file a return or pay a tax on time was due to reasonable cause, i.e., not due to the taxpayer's own carelessness, neglect, or willful disregard of the law, but due to circumstances beyond the taxpayer's control.

Compromise Offers. Taxpayers have a right to request that the Department of Taxation consider a compromise offer to reduce any tax claim arising under the tax laws administered by the Department based on doubt as to liability or collectibility, subject to the Governor's approval.

XI. Collections

Taxpayers have a right to be informed in writing of possible collection actions that may be taken on delinquent taxes, including referral to a collection agency.

Taxpayers have a right to be notified of any cost recovery fee associated with any collection action.

Taxpayers have a right to have collection actions put on hold in the case of hardship or while discussing their situation with the collector, supervisor, or senior management.

Taxpayers have a right to expect a prompt release of a lien upon payment of a tax delinquency and all filing fees.

Taxpayers have a right to have an incorrect lien corrected or released and to have a letter of clarification sent to a credit reporting company.

Taxpayers have a right to have all other collection actions exhausted before a seizure of a taxpayer's assets takes place, unless the Department of Taxation determines that the interests of the State are in jeopardy.

Taxpayers have a right to have the following property exempt from levy: wearing apparel; school books; fuel; provisions; furniture; personal effects; books and tools of a trade, business, or profession; unemployment benefits; and undelivered mail.

TAX FACTS

From the State of Hawaii, Department of Taxation

TAX FACTS NO. 95-1
September, 1995

ALL ABOUT THE HAWAII USE TAX

The Department of Taxation wishes to advise everyone about the Hawaii use tax. It is one of the least understood taxes despite the fact that anyone, including more than 180,000 registered Hawaii businesses, who orders something from a mail order catalog or who purchases goods outside of Hawaii may be subject to this tax.

The use tax is meant to complement the general excise tax which is a tax most taxpayers doing business in Hawaii must pay on the gross income they derive from business activity in Hawaii. Because sellers in Hawaii must pay the general excise tax, it puts them at a price disadvantage with out-of-State businesses not subject to this tax. The use tax equalizes the tax on a transaction by requiring those acquiring goods (for example, cars, clothes, jewelry, computers, equipment, etc.) from out-of-State sellers to pay a tax at the same rate that an in-State seller would have paid in general excise tax if the sale had occurred in Hawaii. The use tax is 1/2 of 1% for those who import goods for resale at retail in Hawaii; 4% for all other uses.

The Department therefore wishes to provide information, to educate taxpayers, and to answer questions to help Hawaii taxpayers comply with the use tax law. With nearly a million people living in Hawaii, the Department knows that it is impossible to monitor all the spending activities of its residents.

The following examples explain the use tax and answer some of the most commonly asked questions regarding this tax.

1. There was a 4% tax charged for Hawaii on the invoice when I ordered items out of a catalog from a company on the mainland. Do I have to pay it?

Yes. Hawaii residents who shop through mail-order catalogs from sellers outside of Hawaii probably aren't aware that they must pay the state a 4 percent use tax for "imported" items when purchased from out-of-state sellers, such as mail-order companies, who are not licensed to do business in Hawaii.

For ease of administration and convenience to the customers, states prefer that mail-order companies collect and pay the use tax for their customers. If the mail-order company does not collect and pay the tax, the purchaser is responsible for paying the use tax to the state.

Depending on the mail-order companies' activities and presence in Hawaii, they may or may not be obligated to collect and pay the use tax under current interpretations of the U.S. Constitution. Many mail-order companies, nevertheless, have voluntarily assumed such an obligation for the convenience of their customers and to avoid legal uncertainties.

2. I purchased an article of clothing in another state and paid that state's sales tax, which was 3%. Do I also have to pay the Hawaii use tax when I bring the item back to Hawaii?

Yes. The law requires you to report the "landed" value (generally the purchase price plus shipping and handling fees) of the item and to pay the use tax on that value. However, any sales tax you pay to another state may be taken as a credit to offset the Hawaii use tax. The sales tax you paid on any item only may be used to offset the use tax on that item. Any excess sales tax paid may not be used to offset the use tax due on the landed value of a different item, nor will it be refunded. Therefore, the maximum amount of credit which you can claim is the lesser of the sales tax paid on the specific item imported, or the use tax due on the landed value of the same imported item. If the sales tax you paid is less than the use tax due, you will have to report and pay a use tax on the difference.

For example:

Sales price of item purchased in state C	-	$100.00
State C's sales tax paid (3%)	-	3.00
Cost of shipping and handling fees, etc.	-	10.00

Total landed value of item is the sales price of the item plus shipping and handling fees. It does not include the sales tax paid. Therefore the total landed value is $110.00.

The Hawaii use tax rate is 4%.

The Hawaii use tax due is $$110.00 \times 4\% = \4.40

However, because the sales tax paid ($3) to state C is less than the Hawaii use tax due ($4.40), the difference, or $1.40, is due to the State of Hawaii.

3. What if the sales tax paid to the other state was more than 4%?

If the sales tax paid to the other state was equal to or more than Hawaii's 4% use tax, the Department is administratively allowing you not to report or pay a use tax on those items as there would be no additional tax due. Therefore, no report needs to be filed in this case.

It is quite possible that many travelers to the continental U.S. may not owe the use tax upon returning to Hawaii because most states, such as California, Nevada, and Florida, have a sales tax that is higher than Hawaii's 4% use tax. However, there are a few states, such as Oregon, that do not have a sales tax.

4. How should I report and pay the use tax due?

Individual, nonbusiness taxpayers who must pay the use tax should use Form G-26 (Use Tax Return - Imports for Consumption) which can be ordered by calling 587-7572, or 1-800-222-7572. As an alternative, you can choose to write the Department a letter (P.O. Box 259, Honolulu, Hawaii 96809-0259) with a check or money order payable to "Hawaii State Tax Collector." The letter should contain the following information:

- (1) Purchaser's name;
- (2) Social security number;
- (3) Date the property was imported; and
- (4) Fair and reasonable cash value of the imported property (the sales price, shipping and handling fees, insurance costs, custom duty, etc.)

The Department will not require you to file a sales receipt with the report or letter, but you must be able to produce the receipt if you are audited.

5. When is the use tax payment due?

The use tax payment is due the month after the purchased items are brought into the State. Although penalty and interest amounts are due on late paid taxes, the Department will not assess these amounts on nonbusiness late filers for now. Since the Department realizes that most people have been unaware about the use tax, the Department is not asking taxpayers to report and pay use taxes due in previous years; the Department is asking taxpayers to begin reporting now for current and future purchases.

The Department also realizes that the reporting requirements for nonbusiness individuals can be burdensome when the amount of use tax due is small. This is why the Department is being liberal in waiving penalties and interest in late filings for now. Also, if the amount of tax to be reported is so small (under $10.00) as to make it impractical to report monthly, the Department will not impose penalties and interest if the nonbusiness taxpayer postpones filing to consolidate reporting with additional purchases. In addition, the Department is not insisting that every nonbusiness taxpayer apply for a separate use tax identification number.

Problems relating to use tax collections are not unique to Hawaii. They are experienced by all states which impose a use tax. For this reason, legislation has been introduced at the national level, in Congress (S-545), which could require all mail-order companies to collect the tax for the states.

Hawaii's tax system has always operated under the concept of voluntary tax compliance. Thus, it is up to Hawaii's taxpayers to take their civic responsibilities seriously and to make an effort to report and pay their state taxes.

If any taxpayer would like more information on the use tax, the Department of Taxation has a brochure entitled, An Introduction to the Use Tax. It can be requested from any of our district tax offices.
